The 1st Norfolk's

War Diary outlines the events around the time that Albert was killed.

22nd April 1917

At BERTHONVAL WOOD in the morning but moved up at 5.30pm to relieve 15th R Warwick Regt in the line. Commenced relieving at about 8.30pm. 1st Devon's on our left 52 Can Regt. on our right: difficult relief owing to very dark night, and the fact that the Regt. we relieved had only been up about 24 hours and their guides were not at all sure of their way to the Coys.

23rd April 1917

Attacked German position in the THELUS VIMY LINE in front of COULOTTE at dawn. Report on attack and operation orders attached.

Officers 7 killed and 8 wounded out of 20 who took part in the attack About 200 ORs killed wounded and missing. Were relieved in the evening by 1st R.W.Kents. and withdrew to BERTHONVAL WOOD. Very good relief by West Kents who seemed to take in the situation at a glance, also had no difficulty with guides, as several men in each Coy had been running all day between Coys and batt H Qrs.
